Our 10,000 square foot facility consists of a very nice, recently remodeled 1,100 square foot office including an office area for insurance appraisers, 2 paint booths and state of the art shop equipment. This allows Capitol Collision Center to quickly and efficiently repair vehicles in a timely manner.

Our Green Commitment

Technology

Capitol Collision Center went green in 2009 with low emissions waterborne paint. We paint all cars in a full downdraft heated spray booth. Through the years, Steve continues to educate himself and his team through continued education such as I-CAR, ASE, and various other training seminars and classes. We use the latest technology to repair vehicles. Investing in new technology is an ongoing venture as we continue to update and improve our facility.

“Every time I have called Capitol Collision Center, I’m greeted by a friendly helpful voice. They are committed to providing excellent customer service as well as quality repairs. I know other people I’ve referred here, and they have thanked me and were very happy with their auto body repairs.”

Our History

Capitol Collision Center was established in 1975. We began in a small shop performing fiberglass repairs and restorations. Over time we have evolved into a full service collision repair facility that still possesses the lost art of fabrication and craftsmanship.

Steve Morrow, owner of Capitol Collision Center, started painting model airplanes and bikes at the age of 12 as well as helping his father and brother sand on vehicles in the home garage. In 1997 at the age of 18, shortly after graduating high school, Steve Morrow was hired as a shop helper knowing that he would eventually be an owner.

With the help of his wife Kristy and all his employees, Steve has grown Capitol Collision Center to what it is today with 7 employees and a 10,000 sq. foot facility.

Since 2008 Capitol Collision Center has been voted one of the best body shops in Sacramento on KCRA 3 A-LIST.

Steve Morrow has been featured in Fender Bender magazine for hybrid technology in collision repair.
